

List of issues:

1. Reform of the Federal Government – The Federal Government should focus on reforming the Federal Government and not on changing or replacing the American citizen.
2. Loss of Democratic Values in Washington D.C. – the Federal Government’s slow drift away from the democratic values upon which the Nation was founded is the greatest threat to the liberty of all American citizens.
3. State Legislative influence over the Federal Government – Bullet will present himself to the Missouri legislature for a parliamentary style “Questions” session to allow the citizens of Missouri greater influence over their senator and their Federal Government.
4. Funding of the Police – Bullet will fully fund our police, while insisting that all police respect and protect the rights of all citizens.
5. Immigration policy – Bullet will support all efforts to ensure we have an orderly, disciplined, and measured immigration system.
6. Immigration policy – U.S. immigration policy should be structured to benefit American citizens, not immigrants or the political interests of any party or interest group.
7. Immigration policy – Ignoring U.S. immigration law by immigrants, or the willful failure to enforce immigration law by public officials, should not be rewarded in any way by U.S. law makers.
8. Immigrant rights – Once accepted as a legal immigrant, immigrants should be extended limited rights until earning citizenship, at which time they shall receive all rights possessed by all U.S. citizens.
9. Parental rights in education – Parents should have both control of and authority over what is taught in public schools.
10. Federal funding of education – Federal funding of education should incentivize students to attend smaller, more efficient schools with high academic standards and performance.
11. Federal funding of education – Federal funding for education should follow the student to the accredited school the student attends.
12. Information rights – Americans should have a “property right” over any information they provide, either directly or indirectly, on any public or open network.
13. Section 230 abuses – Any corporation which benefits from special legal status or protections should not prohibit, restrict, or provide commentary on the exercise of any citizen’s rights.
14. Reckless and destructive fiscal and monetary policy – The Federal Government’s reckless and even destructive fiscal and monetary policies are a threat to the wealth and happiness of future generations of American citizens.
15. Transfer of legislative power away from the legislative branch – The U.S. Congress’ transfer of legislative authority to the President, Judiciary, and administrative state, are a betrayal of our core democratic values, that government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed.

16. Presidential Abuse of Executive Orders – Presidential use of executive Orders either in lieu of legislative authority or beyond the authorities granted it must be checked by the Legislature.
17. Recovery of Congress’s Constitutional role – Congress must recover from the President, Judiciary, and administrative state the powers it has allowed those branches to expropriate.
18. Judicial Activism – The willingness, or even eagerness, of judges to create law rather than to decide issues resulting from disputes over existing law, must be addressed by the U.S. Senate.
19. The Administrative State’s power over the citizen – The administrative state’s ability to make rules which impact the rights, liberties, and welfare of American citizens without specific authority from the Legislature to do so must be ended.
20. The corrupting influence of money in politics – Bullet will conduct a “low-cost campaign” to reduce the influence of special interests in Missouri politics.
21. Poor behavior and low standards by the political class – Bullet will not run a “low-class campaign” that besmirches the name of any other candidate for public office.
22. Representing all Missourians – Bullet will represent three constituencies as your senator, past Americans, present day Americans, and future Americans.
